WHAT'S OUT THERE: The Basics of Social Media

Presented by Zeke Garcia

You might have heard about Facebook, Instagram, and Tic.Toc, but there are so many more social media platforms out there that you've probably never heard of. In this breakout, you will learn about the different social media platforms your child is being exposed to, along with some helpful advice on how to navigate conversations about all of these different social media platforms in your home.

BLAME IT ON THE BRAIN: How Technology Affects the Entire Child

Presented by Rachel Staalsen

It's no surprise that technology affects us in different ways, both positively and negatively. However, when it comes to child development issues, too much exposure to technology can have devastating effects on children. In this breakout, you'll learn about how technology affects the whole child physically, mentally, and spiritually, and how you can come up with a healthy plan that works for your family.
